Discovering The True Power and Importance of Your Life

Dr. Bill R. Path

Dr. Bill R. Path was born in Fayetteville, Arkansas but spent most of his childhood moving from state to state because of his father's career. A shy child by nature, it was difficult for him to regularly be the "new kid" at school. He would sometimes resort to letting his outgoing sisters make friends for him. Bill says, "Traveling in my youth taught me many valuable lessons about observing human behavior and learning how to adjust to almost any given situation. It taught me that there are good people everywhere you go, if you are willing to look for them."

Dr. Path received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Bible from Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas, a Master of Science degree in Educational Psychology and Counseling from Texas A&M University in College Station, and his Doctor of Education degree in Higher Education Administration from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville.

Dr. Path is currently the president of Northeast Community College, a college offering more than 80 programs of study in Norfolk, Nebraska. In addition to being an educator, he is also a philosopher, counselor, writer, and public speaker. Dr. Path has spent most of his career guiding, counseling, and advising people who struggled to find their direction in life. Dr. Path's belief that, "there is real goodness in every person and something of value to be shared," moved him to write his debut book, Moments of Forever, a Rising Star and Editor's Choice winner. In addition, Dr. Path has been happily married to his wife, Deb, for twenty eight years. They are the proud parents of their two adult sons, Grayson and Dalton.
